SEATTLE, WASH.

GARBAGE AND OFFAL—DISPOSAL OF.

SECTION 1. Section 17 of ordinance No. 15957, entitled "An ordinance providing for the preservation and protection of the public health in the city of Seattle and providing penalties for the violation thereof," approved May 10, 1907, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to dump or place upon any land, or in any water or waterway, within the city of Seattle, any dead animals, butchers' offal, fish or parts of fish, or any waste vegetable or animal matter whatever, and the board of public works is hereby authorized to offer a reward of $50 to any person furnishing evidence that will lead to the arrest and conviction of any person depositing the body of any dead animal in any water or waterway within the city of Seattle, and it shall also be unlawful for any person to place upon any land or premises within the city of Seattle any refuse lumber, débris, or waste material of any kind within which rats may nest or within or under which rats may harbor.

Now, therefore, by reason of the foregoing facts, an emergency is hereby declared to exist in which it is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety that this ordinance shall become effective without delay. [Ordinance adopted Jan. 25, 1910.]

TACOMA, WASH.

GARBAGE AND REFUSE—CARE AND DISPOSITION.

SECTION 1. That no person, firm, or corporation within the city limits of the city of Tacoma shall allow any garbage, kitchen waste, or refuse of any nature whatsoever that may become offensive or deleterious to health to be or remain exposed, but shall keep the same in a metallic receptacle, which shall be emptied at least once a week to prevent the contents from becoming foul or noxious.

SEC. 2. Any person, firm, or corporation failing to comply with the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall fined in any sum not exceeding $250 or be imprisoned in the city jail not to exceed 90 days. [Ordinance adopted March 2, 1910.]
